IN THIS GUIDE WE CELEBRATE
CRAFTSMANSHIP, ART, CREATIVITY AND OF COURSE THE HUMAN TRAIT OF CURIOSITY.
WE OFFER YOU THE EXPERIENCE OF BUYING HANDPICKED PRODUCTS AT YOUR CONVENIENCE.

In this era of mass production, we want to emphasize regionally made products, which reflect the love and hard work of manufactures, and not just material possession. In many items you will find the perfect blend of love, nostalgia, tradition and dedicated work. Contrary to popular belief, these products perfectly match the requirements of modern markets and urban lifestyle. Do not miss this issue's theme (page No. 13) where we will discuss modern interpretations of traditional products, with an emphasis on Made in Croatia goods and Croatian designers.

Zagreb is a city with a special charm, perhaps you will not be overwhelmed at first, but it offers more than you can imagine. Take a peek through the hidden alleys, climb long narrow staircases that lead you into the different parts of the town, rent a bike and ride around, visit the Museum of Broken Relationships, explore markets and shop for fresh food products and do not miss the ritual of coffee drinking in many of our coffee bars.

If you are hungry for more, we proudly present to you Zagreb's favorite excursion site - Samobor. This beautiful town is located in the immediate vicinity of Zagreb, and you will love it (for more information, go to page No. 9).

Insight Design Guide team wishes you a pleasant stay, creative shopping and unforgettable long lasting "memories" that you will (in one form or another) take and carry with you.

Samobor is a beautiful and picturesque city in the near proximity of Zagreb. For many years and still today it is considered to be Zagreb's favorite excursion site. Today the surroundings of Samobor are very green and there is approximately 200 km of marked hiking trails. So, if you enjoy nature, long walks in quaint forests with sightings of occasional rabbits and pheasants, take off to Samobor for an afternoon of relaxation.

SOUVENIRS become ART

CROATIAN DESIGNS ARE TAKING A STEP FURTHER IN COMBINING CREATIVITY, CULTURAL HERITAGE AND FOLKLORE MOTIFS, TOGETHER WITH THE BEST EXECUTION AND FINE QUALITY. TODAY, WE HAVE THE POSSIBILITY TO ENJOY MODERN, FUNCTIONAL, PLAYFUL AND REPRESENTATIVE ITEMS.

Croatian designers are still considered underdogs throughout the world in regards to recognition and exposure, but due to recent developments and innovations within the field we predict a bright future for designs Made in Croatia. In this topic, we present two ladies, Ranka Grgić Posavec and Ira Payer, who are considered to be the leaders in creating and promoting Croatian product and design.

Croatia à la carte

WHAT IS YOUR OPINION ON THE NEW INTERPRETATIONS OF OLD TRADITIONS AND MOTIFS IN OUR SOUVENIRS AND PRODUCTS?

RANKA Croatian designers often try to incorporate old craftsmanship, traditional materials or techniques into contemporary designs, or try to reinterpret, redesign and reuse traditional objects or customs common to Croatians. This has resulted in excellent products – souvenirs with a twist, as I like to call them.

IRA Traditional craft products provide great opportunities for contemporary interpretations, which is very inspiring for designers. Several products that were created in collaboration between craftsmen and designers resulted in really witty and intelligent interpretations. To name just one- raincoat "Kaplja" inspired by Šestine umbrellas (designed by Ana Rimac in cooperation with craftsmanship Cerovečki).

HOW WOULD YOU DESCRIBE A STANDARD OFFER OF CROATIAN SOUVENIRS?

RANKA Except for a smaller number of quality products that are locally produced with care and tradition, most souvenirs offered are imported and not of a great quality, they are catered towards mass markets.

IRA Overall in touristic counties most available souvenirs are mass-produced and of low-quality that provides no traditional value. Croatia is no exception. Exciting souvenirs are difficult to come by, there are no standards or rules, although it gives me great joy that in the last few years the market offer in Croatia, especially Zagreb, is changing. There has been a breakthrough of charming, original and thoughtful products, primarily due to projects and ambition of individual designers and an improvement of traditional crafts in promoting their exemplary hand-crafted products.

Ceramic set Pij!

WHICH ARE YOUR FAVORITE SOUVENIR PRODUCTS THAT CAN BE FOUND IN OUR STORES?

RANKA Some of my favorites include Croatia a la carte cooking card game, Croatia as it is bags, Pij! ceramic set, KRTZ! walnut opener, Bašćipka hot pot holders, Lavender grinds, Ban in movement / Licitar bags and umbrellas, Brokula&Ž and Lega-Lega brands.

NAME YOUR FAVORITE TRAVEL DESTINATION AND AN ITEM PURCHASED ON THE TRIP

IRA I love to travel through Europe's large and exciting cities. Usually I buy designer items and food. In Paris, certainly it makes sense to buy macaroons by Pierre Hermé (which unfortunately disappear way too fast but the experience remains). In Amsterdam I bought a romantic paper curtain by Dutch designer Tord Boontje which hangs in my dining room and always reminds me on that trip.

IN YOUR OPINION DO OUR PRODUCTS SATISFY MODERN MARKET NEEDS?

RANKA Definitely. Good designs are always practical and today incorporation of care for the environment and using local resources is necessary. As for the originality, some of the products are very original while others make up for the lack of creativity through other qualities.

WHAT ARE THE POINTS OF IMPROVEMENT REGARDING TRADITIONAL PRODUCTS AND MARKET NEEDS

IRA First and foremost, it is important to understand the sensibility of the tradition, heritage and local identity, before the market needs. Traditional craft techniques can be reinterpreted in the form of new product design. That does not mean that the products are contemporary or reinterpreted. Craft items, if they are well made and authentic, are wonderful souvenirs (such as Pag lace). Unfortunately it is clear that their existence in the market is uncertain.

RANKA

WHAT INSPIRED YOU TO OPEN TAKE ME HOME DESIGN SHOP?

I saw a gap in the market for the kind of products we are talking about today and wanted to offer something better to Zagreb's numerous visitors while, at the same time, promoting local products and Croatian designs.

IRA

TELL US A LITTLE BIT ABOUT YOUR NEW PROJECT CROATIA À LA CARTE

Croatia à la carte is envisioned as a fun social game with traditional recipes and everyday local ingredients in its focus. The rules of the game are quite unique, the playing cards are accompanied by a cookbook, there are detailed recipes and interesting explanations. Already, Croatia à la carte is a complete success among tourists because of their interest in Croatian cuisine.

A GUIDE FOR HAPPY SHOPPING

EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW WHEN YOU ARE SHOPPING IN ZAGREB!

CROATIAN CURRENCY IS THE CROATIAN KUNA (HRK)

In stores, bars, restaurants you can pay ONLY in kuna.

1 euro = approx. 7,6 kuna

CREDIT CARDS In most stores you can pay with all major credit cards. Nevertheless we recommend checking the means of payment at each location.

ATM MACHINES In the center you will find numerous ATM machines. The limit you can withdraw on a daily basis may vary from 2000 kn to 5000 kn.

EXCHANGE OFFICES & BANKS The exchange rates in banks and exchange offices may vary. Exchange offices usually offer better rates than banks.

WEB SHOPS/SHIPPING Certain brands and stores offer online and catalogue orders. Please keep in mind that every web shop has individual terms & conditions, as well as shipping policies.

RECEIPTS, TAXES AND RETURNS For every purchased item you should receive a receipt (keep it, especially if you want to return or exchange purchased items). Return policies may vary, so feel free to ask. Some stores for a returned product do not return money, but offer the option of exchanging your product for something else in the store.

Croatian VAT (PDV) is 25% and it is included in the displayed price.

SHOPPING TIPS & TRICKS

In stores every item should have a clearly indicated price, with VAT (PDV) included, and if the item is on sale it should be marked as such.

We are not a culture of bargaining, but it never hurts to ask for a discount!

Keep in mind that our salespeople are not assertive in their sales tactics, so do not be shy to ask for any information about the item you are interested in. They will be more than happy to assist you.

Do not forget to exchange your money from Monday to Saturday, because banks and exchange offices are not opened on Sundays and national holidays.
