COVER STORY

The cover motif displays the 17th century mace that is set on top of the Stone Gate of Zagreb's old town. The Stone Gate is the remaining part of the old fortress built in the 13th century and is the only preserved entrance of the four old town gates. The mace was placed above the Stone Gate to protect it from the witches, while the statue of lion protects from the evil. The legend says that the witches would get caught on the mace's pikes and therefore unable to enter the city. Today, the Stone Gate is a beloved Zagreb sanctuary where believers light candles and pray to the Mother of God from the Stone Gate, which is also the patron of the city. In the fire that erupted on May 31st 1731, and in which numerous houses were destroyed in the Upper Town, the image of Mother of God remained completely undamaged, and since then the citizens of Zagreb have been coming to the Stone Gate to express their gratitude.

SUSTAINABLE & TIMELESS FASHION

IN THESE INTERVIEWS WE PRESENT, NIDŽARA MUSTAFIĆ FROM MANGO STICKY RICE VINTAGE SHOP AND DORA RUBIĆ, THE OWNER OF DORA ARTISAN FASHION BOUTIQUE

MANGO STICKY RICE VINTAGE, NIDŽARA MUSTAFIĆ

MANGO STICKY RICE VINTAGE IS A NEWLY OPENED VINTAGE SHOP. CAN YOU TELL US HOW YOU CAME UP WITH THE IDEA TO OPEN A VINTAGE SHOP AND WHAT CAN BE FOUND IN IT?

My profession is tourism, but fashion and vintage are my true love. Mango Sticky Rice Vintage was born from the idea of independence as an alternative to conventional employment opportunities in Croatia. I wanted to show it is possible to become an entrepreneur, and at the same time, to give a new meaning and purpose to beautiful old clothes by being responsible to the environment and future generations. As I was trying to connect sustainable fashion with tourism I was thinking about Mango Sticky Rice not only as a vintage shop but also a meeting and greeting place where you can buy vintage clothes, books, jewelry, small antiques and paintings as well as slow fashion brands. There are monthly exhibitions in shop, currently of analogue cameras.

YOU OFTEN MENTION THAT YOUR FOCUS IS ON SLOW AND SUSTAINABLE FASHION. HOW DOES YOUR SHOP FULFIL THOSE CRITERIA?

I think that fashion industry needs to strive towards more ecological, sustainable and ethical production. With this project I wanted to encourage recycling but also to support Croatian designers. Vintage clothes and slow fashion designer accessoires are perfect match. At this moment in offer are Machette Handmade bags which are handcrafted by Goran, a really cool guy. His bags are made of vegetable tanned leather, using less chemicals and are made to last.

SINCE YOU ARE AN OFFICIAL TOURIST GUIDE, WHAT ARE YOUR RECOMMENDATIONS FOR THE VISITORS OF OUR CITY?

Yes, the other part of my project is Red Parrot Tour Guide. The most charming places in Zagreb are food markets. My favorite one, 'Kvatrić' - where you can treat yourself with fresh food, is part of my Markets, Wine and Vintage Clothes tour. Perfect place to have a drink at the moment is KCM Zagreb. Also, don't miss New Zagreb, till recently called a big bedroom of Zagreb, but today with a lot to offer: flea market, good restaurants, parks, and my favorite, Museum of Contemporary Art.

DORA, DORA RUBIĆ

DORA FASHION BOUTIQUE IS A 30-YEAR OLD FAMILY RUN ARTISAN SHOP. CAN YOU TELL US MORE ABOUT THE HISTORY AND THE DEVELOPMENT OF YOUR ESTABLISHMENT?

Our fashion boutique was opened in 1986 by my mother Mirjana Rubić, while she was pregnant with me. As the salon is located next to the Stone Gate, it was named after Dora Krupić (a character from a famous Zagreb novel) whose sculpture is located right across the street, and since I was born a few months later, I can say that I was named after our boutique. Maybe my destiny was already sealed then! I took the job over in 2012 when my mom retired. Although my mum is officially retired, we are still working together and we are doing a great job of completing each other. Her experience and some of my new ideas have turned out to be a great combination to preserve the tradition and the tailoring craft with modern touch.

YOU OFTEN EMPHASIZE ONE OF A KIND FASHION ITEMS YOU CREATE AND THE IMPORTANCE OF SUSTAINABLE AND FAIR PRODUCTION IN THE FASHION INDUSTRY. HOW DO YOU SEE THE FASHION INDUSTRY TODAY AND WHAT ARE THE AIMS IN YOUR ARTISAN PRODUCTION?

Today, we are literally overrun with clothing that is massively produced from season to season, advertised and sold worldwide. There is a constant need to buy new pieces of clothes and change styles and combinations to be trendy, but the joy of buying is only temporary. On the other hand, good fabric, high quality design and timeless style never come out of fashion. Our unique pieces are not standard consumer goods, because they can be worn at all times and combined in countless ways. As everything is produced in the workshop inside our salon, customer can see on-site where the item is designed, prepared, manufactured and who is creating it. Recently, I've noticed that more and more people appreciate it, and are interested in special pieces that do not feel like clones. More often on social networks I see projects like Fashion revolution (#whomademyclothes) and labels "buy less, choose well, make it last" and I'm really happy because of it.

WHAT CAN BE FOUND IN YOUR BOUTIQUE AT THIS TIME OF YEAR?

As always, you can find beautiful unique coats of cashmere, wool, alpaca... Because of the great interest, people come to us from all over the world (somewhere in the world it is winter now), so we always have to have them in our offer. We also have light trench coats, of which I would particularly highlight unique pieces from the Atemporal - timeless canvases collection. It is a part of the art design project with the painter Johnathan Roberts, whose paintings were used for the design of fabrics and in that way we got unique garment artwork. If you ever wanted to wear a painting, you can do it now. In addition to his beautiful motifs, we also have some of our original prints. The newest addition are colorful fashion accessories - scarves, scrunchies and handbags, which are a great gift or a memory from Zagreb.

Take a piece of Zagreb with you! The first Croatian historical novel, a tale of forbidden love between the daughter of a goldsmith and a nobleman's son set against the backdrop of the streets and squares of 16th century Zagreb, represents a true cultural souvenir.

Love and passion, plots and intrigue, nobles, commoners, tricksters... A patchwork of colorful characters is bound to leave you breathless!

The visual concept is the result of an attempt to combine the Renaissance plot of the novel, a Romantic literary style, and the modern interpretation of the digital-age readers, designed by Croatian designers.

ZAGREB MARKETS

Zagreb has vibrant and lively daily as well as weekly market culture. You can find farmers and flea markets all year around. Farmers' markets are open every day and for most locals they serve as a great source of fresh meat, fish, veggies and fruits on a daily basis. Of course, markets are most crowded on Saturdays, which is the most common day for visiting.

Besides Dolac, you should not miss Sunday's weekly Antique fair at the British Square, as well as Hrelić, a massive flea market in Jakuševac situated on the outskirts of the city – where you can get literally anything, whether it be a car, second hand clothing or used kids' toys, among many other curiosities.

Markets' opening hours are from 6:30 am to about 2 pm every day except on National holidays.
